Commissioner for Patents

The Appeal Brief filed on 12/5/2007 is still defective for a reason set forth in the Notice of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief of 11/5/07. In the Notice, the Appellant was informed that the brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims (See box 4 of Notice). In response to the Appellant submitted the Appeal Brief of 12/5/07, which still does not present a concise explanation of the subject matter in the form required, specifically Appellant does not cite to the specification by page and line number (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(b)). Appellant merely provides general statement as to where in the specification description begins, however such is not a concise statement as required.. Therefore, the Appeal Brief of 12/5/07 is defective.

The Notice of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief of 11/5/07 set forth a one month time period for reply. That time period remains. Extensions of time are available (37 CFR 41.37(d)).
